PERSONAL PROFILE

Being blessed with a lot of energy and creativity, plus the attention span of a gnat has propelled me to try anything and everything. Some people have called me COURAGEOUS, while others have branded me SPONTANEOUS. Others have said, "My God, what WAS she thinking?" They would all be right.

Most things I've thrown myself into have turned out very, very well. Others, however, NOT-SO-MUCH. It was the NOT-SO-MUCH's that got my attention. In business, almost everything turned to gold. In my relationships and marriage, it was more like the stinky brown stuff. I was looking like my successful resume but feeling rotten on the inside. So, I decided to take time out for a serious look at all the places in my life that needed re-alignment.

Going inside, taking the road less traveled, has been the most challenging aspect of my life. During the last 20 years, I have been around the world, into every seminar, self-help workshop and spiritual experience imaginable. I began to put a life in place that is authentic and whole. I know, with a quiet, unwavering confidence that anything or anyone who comes into my life now, is there for a purpose, to teach me more and to show me the lessons and blessings available for my growth and well being---no matter what it seems to be, in the moment..

No, life is not perfect but that's the beauty of it. The UH OH's and the AH-HA's, the chug holes and the speed bumps, the tools and the trials that have enriched my life, I now share with others as I write and speak.....and continue to learn with other like-minded, like-hearted people---who desire to create a life of meaning, passion, purpose, peace and prosperity.
